AGENDA REPORT
BREVARD COUNTY CHARTER REVIEW COMMISSION

| AGENDA | |
|------------|-------|
| Proposal # | 45 |
| Item No. | X. C. |

SUBJECT: The ongoing study of our government for the purpose of creating recommendations regarding Efficiency, Opportunity and Innovation.

PETITIONER: John Porter

Requested Action:
To be given to counsel for drafting.

Summary Explanation & Background:

Brevard county system of government to be studied by a non-partisan group on a constant basis, for efficiencies, opportunities and innovation.

This study group to be chosen every six years by a majority vote of the Brevard County Commission. County Manager staff to create contract for services based on below criteria.

All areas of county government are to be studied not less than once every six years. Recommendations shall be submitted to the government agency being studied by the end of September for a public response by the end of the calendar year.

Before the end of each calendar year a written response “yes” or “no” to each recommendation shall be received by Florida Today, Channel 13 and to the “study group” that has made the official recommendations.

The study group would be encouraged to use the best and brightest minds in Brevard County. In addition, the study group would be encouraged to look world wide for best practices for achieving great government.
