Soulful Sounds and Food Festival to be held at Isaac Campbell Park

TITUSVILLE, Fla.- The Soulful Sounds and Food Festival will be held at the Isaac Campbell, Sr. Community Center and Park at 701 South Street in Titusville on Saturday, August 14. Gates will open at 3 p.m. with the show starting at 4:30 p.m.

There will be a live concert featuring multi-platinum-selling rhythm and blues, soul and gospel artist Kelly Price. Also featured will be two-time Grammy winner, four-time Grammy nominee as a solo artist, and former lead singer of the Sounds of Blackness, Ann Nesby; gospel sensations Roger and Sam Grandison, smooth soulful jazz performances by Antoine Knight; and local talent.

The cost to attend the event is $20 for general admission seating, $35 for VIP seating and $5 for children under 12. Tickets can be purchased at St. James AME Church (321)-269-3645 or online at www.soulfulsounds.org. Food vendors will be present. A limited number of back-to-school supplies will be given to school-age children.

The event is cosponsored by the Brevard County Board of County Commissioners' Parks & Recreation Department, North Area Parks Operations, NAACP, St. James AME Church, Blessed Boundaries Foundation, Inc., VITAS and State Farm Robin Fisher Insurance. For more information, please call Jeff Davis at (321) 264-5105.
