Canine Communication Training Classes Offered

PALM BAY, Fla. – Brevard County Parks and Recreation along with Space Coast Bark Busters is offering Canine Communication Training: “A Path to Better Understanding Your Dog”.

The three-class program begins Tuesday, September 14 from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Ted Whitlock Community Center in Palm Bay. The second class will be held on Tuesday, September 21 from 6 to 7 p.m. at the center and the final class will be held on Tuesday, September 28 from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Palm Bay Regional Dog Park. The Ted Whitlock Community Center and the dog park are located inside Palm Bay Regional Park, 1951 Malabar Road NW.

The series of classes will educate owners on principles of canine communication. The classes are for any dog owner wanting to learn to better understand their dog. The first two classes will include owner-only classroom instruction in canine communication and the top ten tips every dog owner should know. At the third class dogs will accompany their owners in the dog park where they will learn dog park safety tips.

The cost for the three week series of classes is $45. Classes are conducted by Space Coast Bark Busters of Melbourne. For more information or to pre-register call Pam and Zeke Twardzik at (321) 446-9836.
